Updates provided on Caps Today and twitter.com/CapitalsPR

The Washington Capitals media relations staff works to provide information about the team and access to players, coaches and management in a timely manner for members of the media.

CREDENTIALS & MEDIA SERVICES Media Credentials

Credentials are issued to media who cover the Capitals both seasonally and on a game-by-game basis and are required for admission to the media areas at both Verizon Center and Kettler Capitals Iceplex. All credentials must include the bearer's name and affiliation and are non-transferable.

Season credentials: All season credentials are issued prior to the season. Season credentials do not guarantee a seat in the press box; credential holders must contact Capitals communications coordinator Megan Eichenberg (meichenberg@washcaps.com) by 2 p.m. the day prior to a game in order to reserve seating. A media credential cannot be used to sit in spectator seating areas.

Media who do not have a season credential may apply for single-game credentials. These requests must be directed to Capitals communications coordinator Megan Eichenberg (meichenberg@washcaps. com) and received no later than 2 p.m. the day prior to a game. The credential is good only for the game printed on the tag and must be displayed to Verizon Center security personnel to gain entry to restricted media areas.

All Capitals practice sessions are open to approved members of the media.

Non-North American media outlets are required to request media credentials through the National Hockey League by contacting David Keon at dkeon@nhl.com.

Capitals media credentials are issued to print, television, radio and online media outlets that adhere to professional standards, regularly produce quality content and have a demonstrated audience. Space limitations may impact the decision to grant credentials. The final decision on all applications for media credentials rests with the Capitals media relations staff; we reserve the right to revoke media credentials at any time.

News Releases

Accredited members of the media who would like to receive Capitals news releases via e-mail should contact a member of the media relations staff with an e-mail address. Among our releases is "Caps Today," sent daily during the season, which includes an updated practice schedule, recent transactions and the top storyline of the day.

Audio Files

The Capitals regularly post updated audio files in mp3 format on their website, CapitalsToday.com and on twitter.com/CapitalsPR. Radio stations, websites and other media are welcome to utilize these audio clips.

Twitter

Media who would like to receive updates on practice times and other breaking news via twitter or text message can sign up for the team's media Twitter feed at twitter.com/CapitalsPR. The team also maintains a general Twitter feed at twitter.com/Capitals.

NHLMedia.com

The NHL's password-protected media site includes statistics, press releases, game notes, credential applications and pdf files of every team's media guide. To access the site, visit http://media.nhl.com.

MEDIA FACILITIES - VERIZON CENTER

Media Entrance

The media entrance to Verizon Center is now located between 6th Street and F Street. Credentials to Capitals games may be picked up at the media entrance, which is open from three hours prior to game time until the midway point of the first period. All media must show a photo ID and are subject to a security search. Media attending home morning skates and games will no longer be able to access the event level through stairwell one; all entry to the building must now go through security control (located on 6th street between F & G).

Press Work Area and Press Lounge

The new press work area and press lounge are located on the Event Level (ice level). The press lounge is located directly adjacent to the media work area directly next to stairwell one. Meals are served buffet style, catered by Aramark, two hours prior to game time and media members will be charged $10 per meal (receipts provided). All food must be consumed in the press lounge and may not be taken to the press box. The press work area is located in the same room adjacent to the press lounge. There are reserved seats for beat media and additional work spaces with telephones and wireless Internet access.

Press Bo

The press box is on the sixth floor of Verizon Center on the penalty box side of the ice. Seats are on an assigned basis only. Please check the seating charts in the press room or press box, or check with the press box attendant for your seat assignment. The press box features wireless Internet access. In order to ensure seating in the press box, it is necessary for all media to notify the Capitals media relations staff of their attendance by 2 p.m. the day prior to the game. If you do not have an assigned seat, please check with a member of the media relations staff.

Media Parking

Media parking at Verizon Center is extremely limited and assigned prior to the season. There are numerous lots within walking distance of Verizon Center, and Verizon Center is adjacent to the Gallery Place/Chinatown Metro Station. Gallery Place can be reached on the Red, Yellow and Green lines. It is also one stop away from Metro Center, which provides service to the Blue and Orange lines.

Photography

Verizon Center has a limited number of photo positions. All photo positions will be assigned prior to the game by team photographer Patrick McDermott (patrick@patrickmcdermott.com). Daily print and wire services receive priority for the prime positions. Freelance photographers will not receive credentials; all photographers must be on assignment. Still photographers must receive permission in advance from a member of the media relations staff for postgame admission to the Capitals locker room.

MEDIA FACILITIES – KETTLER CAPITALS ICEPLEX Work Room

Kettler Capitals Iceplex features a media work room adjacent to the ice, near the entrance of the Capitals locker room. The work room features Ethernet cables and complimentary wireless Internet access.

MEDIA ACCESS AND INTERVIEWS

Practice Sessions

The media has access to all team practices at all practice facilities, including game-day skates, in accordance with the NHL Media Regulations. The media is allowed to enter the team locker room five minutes after the first regular player who has participated in the entire practice leaves the ice. In the event of a team meeting, the media will be allowed access immediately following the conclusion of the meeting. The locker room is closed to the media prior to and during practice.

Per NHL Media Regulations, media access at Kettler Capitals Iceplex is limited to the team's main locker room and the entrance to the locker room. All other areas of the training center are off limits to media.

Capitals game-day skates are typically held at 10 a.m. at Kettler.

Media Information

Pregame

The Capitals locker room is closed prior to game time, although requested players will be made available during a 30-minute window beginning two hours prior to faceoff, with priority given to broadcast rightsholders. Television networks, including rightsholders, requesting pregame interviews with a player are asked to request these times prior to or during the morning skate. Head coach Barry Trotz is available to the media following all morning skates at Kettler Capitals Iceplex. Those media members who are unable to attend that day's morning skate and wish to interview Trotz at Verizon Center must contact Capitals vice president of communications Sergey Kocharov (skocharov@washcaps.com) prior to the morning skate to arrange a time to meet with Trotz before the game.

Postgame

The Capitals locker room will be open to working media five minutes after the conclusion of the game. Head coach Barry Trotz's press conference will follow approximately 15 minutes after the game in the Interview Room. If the media wishes to interview a player who is not present in the locker room, contact a Capitals media relations representative who will locate the player.

Video

All outlets are prohibited by the National Hockey League from shooting game footage of any Capitals game being played at Verizon Center. Television and online outlets are welcome to shoot Capitals practices, but are restricted to broadcasting five minutes of on-ice video content from any one practice. There is no limit to the length of interviews that outlets may broadcast. Please note that all media members (except for rightsholders and local television affiliates) are prohibited from shooting video or still photography of post-game player interviews in the Capitals locker room.

Players' Personal Telephone Numbers

At no time will a player's home or mobile phone number be released to either the media or the public unless the player specifically authorizes such release. Members of the media attempting to reach players must do so through the Capitals media relations staff; failure to do so, regardless of a media member's existing relationship with a player, may result in forfeiture of credentials.

Team Medical Rooms

Team medical rooms located at Verizon Center, Kettler Capitals Iceplex or any other practice facility are off limits to the media at all times.

Autographs

Media attending Capitals practices or games are strictly forbidden from requesting autographs. Any person with a media pass observed asking players for autographs will be asked to leave and may not be granted credentials in the future.

Verizon Center

Verizon Center is a 20,000-seat multi-purpose sports and entertainment venue, owned and operated by Monumental Sports & Entertainment, in the Penn Quarter neighborhood of Chinatown in downtown Washington, D.C. The arena is home to the NBA's Washington Wizards, the NHL's Washington Capitals, the WNBA's Washington Mystics and the NCAA's Georgetown Hoyas men's basketball team.

Boasting an average of 220 events per year, Verizon Center is the heart of a $8.5 billion redevelopment that began almost 19 years ago when the arena was built and opened on Dec. 2, 1997. Since then the privately financed arena in downtown Washington has hosted 43.6 million people and more than 3,623 events.

The surrounding neighborhood throughout the years has been rejuvenated by a plethora of restaurants, condominiums and businesses, making the Seventh Street corridor an entertainment destination.

In June 2010, Ted Leonsis became the majority owner of Verizon Center and formed Monumental Sports & Entertainment (MSE). MSE includes ownership of the NBA's Washington Wizards, the NHL's Washington Capitals, the WNBA's Washington Mystics and Verizon Center. Monumental Sports & Entertainment also manages Kettler Capitals Iceplex, the training facility for the Capitals, and EagleBank Arena at George Mason University. In January 2013, MSE launched Monumental Network, a digital platform that serves as the hub for the region's sports and entertainment news.

As an arena in the heart of downtown Washington, D.C., Verizon Center has hosted a multitude of high-profile events in its history, ranging from the 1998 Stanley Cup Final to the NBA (2001) and WNBA (2002, 2007) All-Star games to the 2003 World Figure Skating Championship, the ACC Men's Basketball Tournament (2005, 2016), the first and second rounds of the NCAA Division I men's basketball tournament (1998, 2002, 2008) as well as the second and third rounds (2011), the East Regional Round (2006, 2013) and the 2009 NCAA Frozen Four men's hockey championship. In 2017 the arena will host the Big Ten Tournament for the first time and in 2018 the A10 Tournament for the first time.

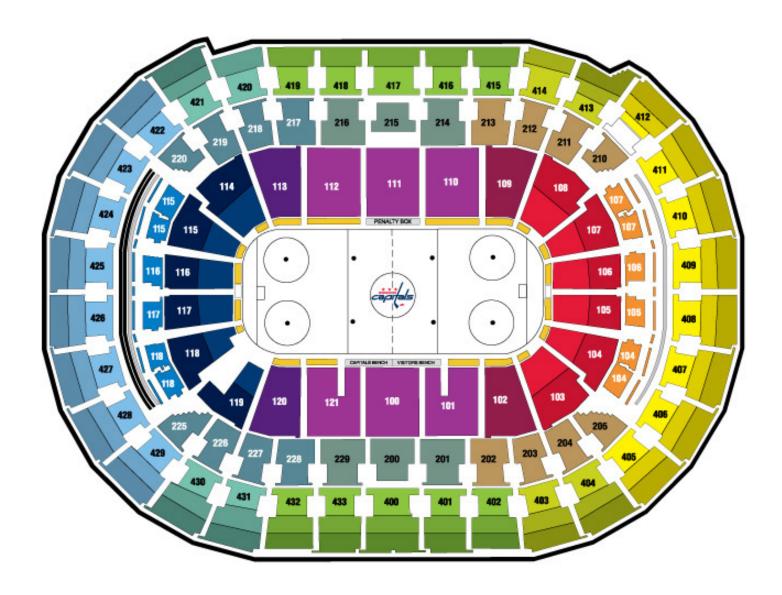

Entertainment at the arena would not be complete without concerts and family shows ranging from all-time greats to current-day chart-topping artists. In the 17 year history of the arena some of the artists who have roamed the halls and mastered the stage at Verizon Center include: U2, Lady Gaga, Madonna, Coldplay, The Three Tenors, Barbra Streisand, Bon Jovi, Prince, Tim McGraw & Faith Hill, Beyonce, the Dalai Lama, Tina Turner, Keith Urban, Paul Simon and Sting, Taylor Swift, Usher, Disney on Ice and WWE.

Kettler Capitals Iceplex

KETTLER CAPITALS ICEPLEX

The Washington Capitals ushered in a new era for the franchise in 2006 with the opening of Kettler Capitals lceplex, a community ice rink in Arlington, Va., that serves as the Capitals' training facility and home to the team's administrative offices. The project, a joint venture between the Washington Capitals and Arlington County, is located on the eighth level of the parking garage attached to the Ballston Common Mall.

The 137,000-square-foot facility includes two NHL-size ice rinks with seating for approximately 1,200, office space, two pro shops, a snack bar, media facilities and additional space for special events. The 20,000-square-foot, state-of-the-art training center for the Capitals features a large weight and fitness room, extensive athletic-training and medical facilities, spacious locker-room and lounge areas, a theater-style classroom and a high-tech video room.

Kettler Capitals Iceplex host Capitals training camp for the 10th year in 2016. It has also played host to nine Capitals summer development camps and the unveiling of the team's new logos and jerseys in 2007. In 2013, Kettler Capitals Iceplex hosted the United States Olympic Men's National Team Orientation Camp, designed to assist in the preparation of the 2014 U.S. Olympic Men's Ice Hockey Team that competed at the XXII Olympic Winter Games in Sochi, Russia. It also hosted the U.S. Under-18 Select Team and U.S. Under-17 Select Team in 2015.

The structure was built atop the existing seven-story public parking garage at the corner of North Glebe Road and North Randolph Street in the heart of Ballston. The $42.8 million project, designed by Architecture Inc. of Reston, Va., included the addition of an eighth level of parking to the garage. Kettler Capitals Iceplex is the only rink in the United States built eight or more stories above street level.

The facility is the first indoor ice rink inside the Capitol Beltway in Virginia and just the second facility of its kind anywhere inside the Beltway (Ft. DuPont Ice Rink in D.C. is the other). With the Orange and Silver Line reaching the Ballston Metro Station nearby, Kettler Capitals Iceplex is the only community rink located on the Metrorail system.

The two ice sheets offer an estimated 12,000 hours of ice time per year for use by youth, high school and college hockey teams, figure skating, synchronized skating, recreational skating, learn-to-skate programs and hockey and broomball. The Washington Little Capitals, a top tier 1 program, play at the facility as well as the recently developed Capitals Academy Travel teams and Rooftop Hockey House League. At least 500 hours of ice time are donated by the Capitals to Arlington County to offer the economically disadvantaged and physically and mentally challenged members of the community an opportunity to use the facility.

Dick PatrickVice Chairman, Monumental Sports & Entertainment President, Washington Capitals

Dick Patrick has been part of the Washington Capitals organization since 1982 and was one of Ted Leonsis's original partners when Monumental Sports &

Entertainment was formed in June 2010. Mr. Patrick is president of the Capitals and vice chairman of Monumental Sports & Entertainment. For the first five years of MSE's existence, Mr. Patrick also assumed initial responsibility as chief operating officer and was involved in all facets of operating three professional sports franchises — the Capitals, Washington Wizards and the Washington Mystics — and Verizon Center.

As president of the Capitals' franchise for more than two decades, he continues to lead the club with his tireless effort and intense desire to continue a family tradition — engraving the Patrick name onto the Stanley Cup.

For three generations the family name of Patrick has been synonymous with the sport of hockey and the National Hockey League. Mr. Patrick's grandfather, Lester Patrick, was the longtime coach and general manager of the New York Rangers. In his honor the Lester Patrick Trophy is awarded annually for "outstanding service to hockey in the United States." It was Lester who instilled in his family the desire to remain active in the advancement of the sport of hockey and the National Hockey League. Mr. Patrick's father, Muzz, and uncle, Lynn, both played on the 1940 New York Rangers team that captured the Stanley Cup. In October 2012, Dick Patrick was awarded the Lester Patrick Trophy for his contributions to hockey in the United States.

Mr. Patrick's cousin, Craig Patrick, played for the Capitals from 1977-79. He won two Stanley Cups as general manager of the Pittsburgh Penguins and was enshrined in the Hockey Hall of Fame in November 2001 in the "builder" category.

Before Mr. Patrick's arrival, the Capitals had never advanced to postseason play. In his 33 seasons with the club, Washington has qualified for the playoffs 26 times — including the team's run to the Stanley Cup finals in 1998 and two Presidents' Trophy-winning teams (2009-10, 2015-16).

In addition to his commitment to the Capitals, Mr. Patrick previously served as co-chairman of the Washington, D.C., Division of the Fighting Blindness League. FBL, a charity event sponsored by the National Hockey League, benefits the Foundation Fighting Blindness in the fight against retinal degenerative diseases. Held in nine NHL cities on the eve of the Stanley Cup playoffs, FBL gives participants the chance to "own" an imaginary NHL franchise and participate in a rotisserie-style fantasy draft of NHL players.

Born in 1946 in Victoria, B.C., Mr. Patrick grew up in the United States. He earned his undergraduate degree from Dartmouth College and a law degree from the Washington College of Law at American University. He has developed commercial real estate in the Washington, D.C., area for more than 20 years and, while raising children who have skated within local youth hockey programs, he has been instrumental in increasing the Capitals' involvement in youth programs throughout the area.

Mr. Patrick, who joined the Capitals prior to the 1982-83 season, guides the team on a daily basis. The former chairman of the NHL Finance Committee, Mr. Patrick has been instrumental in the Capitals' long-term success as a franchise both on and off the ice. Mr. Patrick was a leader in the conception and development of Kettler Capitals Iceplex, the team's state-of-theart training center and office building that opened in 2006 in Arlington, Va.

Barry Trotz Head Coach

Barry Trotz is entering his third season as head coach of the Capitals and his 18th season as an NHL head coach. Trotz, 54, became the 17th coach in Capitals history on May 26, 2014, after spending the previous 15 seasons as head coach of the Nashville Predators. Trotz was previously the longest tenured coach in the NHL and the only coach in the Predators franchise history. Trotz ranks third all-time in both games coached (1,196) and wins (557) with a single franchise.

Last season, Trotz won the Jack Adams Award, awarded annually to the NHL's top head coach. Trotz led the Capitals to their second Presidents' Trophy in franchise history (2009-10), posting a 56-18-8 record (120 points). Washington set franchise marks in wins and road wins (27) and the Capitals' 120 points and 29 home wins were one shy of club records. The Capitals were dominant at both ends of the ice in 2015-16, ranking second in the NHL in goals per game (3.02) and goals-against per game (2.33). Washington also finished the season ranked second in penalty killing (85.2%) and fifth in power-play percentage (21.9%). Trotz was selected to serve as head coach of the Metropolitan Division team at the 2016 NHL All-Star Game in Nashville.

Trotz coached his 1,300th NHL game on Nov. 27, 2015, against Tampa Bay, becoming the 10th coach in NHL history to reach 1,300 games. In addition, he earned his 649th career win on March 2, 2016 vs. Toronto, passing Ron Wilson (648) for ninth place on the all-time NHL coaching wins list. Trotz has posted a 658-523-60-119 record in his career and ranks ninth on the all-time NHL coaching wins list and 10th on the games coached list (1,360). In addition, he ranks fourth among active coaches behind only Joel Quenneville (Chicago), Ken Hitchcock (St. Louis) and Lindy Ruff (Dallas).

In his first season as head coach, Trotz led the Capitals to a 45-26-11 (101 points) record, reaching the 100 point mark for the eighth time in team history and the first since the 2010-11 season. In addition to passing their point total from 2013-14 (90), Trotz helped the Capitals improve in several statistical categories. Washington ranked seventh in the NHL in goals against (2.43) in 2014-15 after finishing 21st in the League in 2013-14 (2.79). The Capitals ranked tied for 10th in shots against per game (28.9) in 2014-15 while the team ranked 27th (33.5) in 2013-14. In addition, the Capitals finished 2014-15 ranked fourth in the NHL in goal differential (+34) after finishing 18th (-15) in 2013-14.

Trotz is one of just six coaches in all four major North American sports leagues to have coached or managed each of a team's first 15 seasons of existence (MLB: Connie Mack - 50, Oakland; NFL: Curly Lambeau - 29, Green Bay; Tom Landry - 29, Dallas; Hank Stram - 15, Kansas City; Paul Brown - 15, Cleveland). In addition to winning the award in 2015-16, Trotz has been a finalist for the Jack Adams Award three times (2010, 2011, 2016) while finishing in the top-5 on four other occasions since 2006.

In Nashville, Trotz's system saw the Predators finish among the top-10 in penalty killing rankings six times in his last nine seasons and in the League's top half in goals-against average seven times in his last nine years. Under his leadership, the Predators were annually among the NHL's most disciplined teams, ranking among the top five in fewest penalty minutes five straight seasons, finishing first in the category in 2009-10 and 2011-12 and third during the 2013-14 season.

Trotz earned the first of his back-to-back Jack Adams nominations in 2009-10, when he was runner-up for the award after leading his club to a 100-point season (47-29-6) despite the NHL's 28th-highest payroll. Trotz was again nominated for the award in 2011-12 after guiding the Predators to the fifth seed in the Western Conference (44-27-11 record) despite losing 348 man-games due to injury, a number that ranked among the top three in the league. That success continued in 2011-12 when he finished fifth in Adams voting after steering the team to their third-best record in franchise history and to top 10 rankings in goals for (eighth), goals against (eighth), power-play percentage (first) and penalty-kill percentage (10th). On Nov. 12, 2011, against the Montreal Canadiens, he hit the 1,000-game milestone, and on March 30, 2012, reached the 500-win mark.

Trotz also earned individual accolades following the 2006-07 campaign after guiding the Predators to the second-most points in the Western Conference and tied for the third-most points in the NHL, notching franchise records in points (110), wins (51), road wins (23) and goals (272). He was named 2007 Coach of the Year by The Sporting News, an honor determined through a vote of his peers, in addition to finishing fourth in Jack Adams voting and serving as an assistant coach for the Western Conference at the 2007 NHL All-Star Game.

Prior to joining the Predators, Trotz spent five seasons (1992-97) as the coach of the Capitals' primary developmental affiliate in the American Hockey League. He was named coach of the Baltimore Skipjacks in 1992 after one season as an assistant coach. Following the franchise's relocation to Portland, Maine, in 1993, he led the Portland Pirates to two Calder Cup finals appearances during the next four seasons. In 1994-95, Trotz coached Portland to a Calder Cup championship and a league-best 43-27-10 record and captured AHL Coach of the Year honors. In 2006, he was honored with election to the Pirates' Hall of Fame.

Trotz has also gained experience coaching on the international stage, serving as an assistant coach for Team Canada at the 2016 World Cup of Hockey and at the IIHF World Championships on four occasions, most recently at the 2013 tournament in Stockholm, Sweden, and Helsinki, Finland. In 2003, he helped the Canadians win gold in Finland, and in 2009, he helped guide Canada to a silver medal in Switzerland.

Trotz began his coaching career in 1984 as an assistant with the University of Manitoba. He then served two seasons (1985-87) as the coach and general manager of the Dauphin Kings junior hockey club before returning to the University of Manitoba as the head coach in 1987. In January 2001, Trotz was inducted into the University's Hall of Fame. During the 1987 campaign, Trotz also served as a scout for the Spokane Chiefs (WHL) and a part-time scout for the Capitals. In 1988, he joined Washington as a full-time western scout, and the next season he became the team's chief western scout.

Before coaching, Trotz played junior hockey for the Regina Pats (WHL) from 1979-83, capturing a WHL championship in 1979-80. The defenseman registered 102 points (19 goals and 83 assists) and 490 penalty minutes in 204 games.

Trotz and his family are active in the Washington, D.C., community, working closely with Best Buddies Capital Region, a nonprofit organization dedicated to establishing a global volunteer movement that creates opportunities for one-on-one friendships, integrated employment and leadership development for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities. Prior to joining the Capitals, Trotz and his family were active in a variety of service and charitable initiatives in the Middle Tennessee community. This commitment was recognized when Trotz was honored with the Community Spirit Award (in recognition for community service) at the 2005 O'Charley's Dinner of Champions, presented by the Nashville Sports Council. Trotz and his wife, Kim, donated more than $260,000 to My Friend's House (a United Way agency). He also worked closely with Best Buddies of Tennessee.

While working with Korn, Hasek captured four Vezina Trophies and led the NHL in save percentage five times. Korn also saw Buffalo's goaltending tandem (Hasek and Hall-of-Famer Grant Fuhr) capture the NHL's Jennings Trophy (lowest team goals-against average) during the 1994-95 season. Korn has also helped develop many goalie coaches, with those who have learned under him serving around North America at various levels, including five currently coaching in the NHL (Mike Bales, Pittsburgh; Steve Briere, Toronto; Mike Dunham, NY Islanders; Wade Flaherty, Winnipeg; Ben Vanderklok, Nashville) and six formerly at the NHL level (Mike Valley, Dallas; Grant Fuhr, Arizona; Corey Hirsch, St. Louis; Olie Kolzig, Washington; Clint Malarchuk, Calgary; Steve McKichan, Toronto).

Korn began his coaching career at Kent State University in 1979 shortly after ending his playing career at the school. The Washington Capitals strive for success both on and off the ice. As a professional sports franchise with deep roots in and around the Washington, D.C., metropolitan area, the Capitals are committed to making a difference in the local community through Monumental Sports & Entertainment Foundation and Caps Care.

Monumental Sports & Entertainment Foundation

Created in 2013, Monumental Sports & Entertainment Foundation supports the charitable efforts of the Washington Capitals, Mystics, Valor and Wizards.

MSE Foundation is committed to the Washington, D.C., metropolitan area and focuses on the following five pillars to maximize its impact and engagement with the community:

- Youth basketball, football and hockey

Fundraisers

Caps Casino Night: Caps Casino Night is the marquee fundraising event for the Washington Capitals. More than 400 fans helped raise more than $300,000 for charity at the fifth Caps Casino Night presented by Leonsis Foundation in 2015 at the Sheraton Pentagon City Hotel in Arlington, Va. To date the Capitals have raised more than $1.5 million for charity through Casino Night.

A special reception was held for VIP ticket holders who mingled with the entire team along with coaches and owners. Afterward, the players entered the gaming area, which featured blackjack, craps, roulette, Texas hold 'em and slot machines. The participants were treated to complimentary food and beverage during the event. There were three silent auctions where participants were able to bid on autographed sports memorabilia and Capitals' game-used equipment. In addition, two raffles were held, one that required attendees to buy tickets and another that guests could enter with the "money" they won from the casino games. The evening concluded with a live auction featuring one-of-a-kind experiences with Capitals players.

The 2016 Capitals Casino Night will take place on Tuesday, Nov. 29, 2016.

Capitals Equipment Auctions: This season the Washington Capitals will hold four auctions featuring autographed equipment with all proceeds benefiting MSE Foundation. The auctions will take place during the games on Oct. 22, Nov. 16, Dec. 17 and Feb. 5. The auctions will be set up on the main concourse at section 109 and fans will be able to place bids through Handbid.

Hockey Fights Cancer Jersey Auction: Since 2008, the Washington Capitals have hosted a jersey auction as part of the NHL's Hockey Fights Cancer Month initiative. The Capitals hosted their last Hockey Fights Cancer Jersey Auction in October 2015, raising more than $100,000 for Flashes of Hope and Cancer Train. The auction featured autographed jerseys, goalie masks, sticks and pucks. During warmups, players wore lavender Capitals jerseys with a Hockey Fights Cancer patch in honor of Andi Lambert, the late wife of assistant coach Lane Lambert. Andi passed away in September following a battle with cancer.

The jerseys featured players' names and numbers in ombré twill as well as a removable nameplate featuring the name of the player's loved one who has experienced a form of cancer. Braden Holtby and Philipp Grubauer also wore Hockey Fights Cancer-themed goalie masks during the game. Player-used sticks with lavender tape and pucks featuring a lavender Capitals logo rounded out the auction.

Five jerseys sold for more than $2,000, with captain Alex Ovechkin's jersey selling for the most at $8,150. Holtby's autographed mask sold for $8,500. The Hockey Fights Cancer tie worn by coach Barry Trotz and autographed by Capitals captain Alex Ovechkin and Pittsburgh Penguins captain Sidney Crosby sold for $1,575.

Look for the Hockey Fights Cancer Jersey Auction to return on Nov. 5, 2016.

Courage Caps: For the ninth year in a row, the Washington Capitals reminded everyone what true courage is and called Caps fans to action through Courage Caps. Through this initiative, presented by Telos Corporation, MSE Foundation and the Capitals donated more than $140,000 to Tragedy Assistance Program for Survivors (TAPS).

Courage Caps and T-shirts were sold for $20 at Capitals home games, online at Washington Caps. com and at the team stores at Kettler Capitals Iceplex and Verizon Center. There were also a limited number of autographed Courage Caps and T-shirts available. For $50, fans were able to purchase a "Three Stars" Courage Cap or T-shirt signed by Nicklas Backstrom, John Carlson, Braden Holtby, T.J. Oshie, Alex Ovechkin or Tom Wilson; for $40, fans could purchase a hat or T-shirt signed by any other individual Capitals player.

During the past five seasons, Courage Caps allowed the Capitals to raise more than $575,000 for Tragedy Assistance Program for Survivors, a nonprofit organization that helps families of the fallen. Founded out of tragedy in 1994, TAPS has established itself as the front line resource to the families and loved ones of our military men and women. TAPS provides ongoing emotional help, hope and healing to all who are grieving the death of a loved one in military service to America, regardless of their relationship to the deceased, geography or circumstance of the death. TAPS offers comfort and care through comprehensive services and programs including peer-based emotional support, case work assistance, crisis intervention and grief and trauma resources.

This season, Courage Caps will be available in January 2017.

Caps Canine Calendar: MSE Foundation donated nearly $45,000 to Homeward Trails Animal Rescue through the sale of copies of the 2016 Caps Canine Calendar. The calendars were sold at Caps home games, at the team stores at Kettler Capitals Iceplex and Verizon Center, and at WashingtonCaps.com. The calendar featured photos of Capitals players Karl Alzner, Jay Beagle, John Carlson, Taylor Chorney, Matt Niskanen, Brooks Orpik, T.J. Oshie and Justin Williams with their dogs and Nicklas Backstrom, Andre Burakovsky, Braden Holtby, Marcus Johansson, Evgeny Kuznetsov, Michael Latta, Dmitry Orlov, Alex Ovechkin, Nate Schmidt and Tom Wilson with dogs from Homeward Trails. All photography and photo editing services were generously donated by Virgil Ocampo.

The Caps Better Halves came up with the calendar idea and Mandy Alzner presented the check to Sue Bell, founder and executive director of Homeward Trails Animal Rescue, during the Caps game on March 1. Homeward Trails Animal Rescue is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization that provides pet adoption in Virginia, Washington, D.C., and Maryland. Homeward Trails seeks to find permanent adoptive homes in the Mid-Atlantic region for dogs and cats from high-kill shelters or whose owners can no longer care for them. They seek to reduce the rate of euthanasia of adoptable animals through the rescue and placement of homeless animals; to support proactive spay/neuter practices; to promote positive and ongoing behavioral training; and to educate the public about how to care for their animals in a humane way. Homeward Trails not only facilitates adoptions from local shelters, but also supports a large network of foster care providers who take homeless dogs and cats into their homes, care for them, rehabilitate them when needed, and prepare them for their permanent adoptive homes.

The Capitals look forward to creating a 2017 Caps Canine Calendar to raise money for this cause close to the players' hearts.

Caps Better Halves Gift Basket Auction: In 2016, the Caps Better Halves created and auctioned off gift baskets, raising $37,000 for charity. The Caps' Better Halves created 23 gift baskets, one for each player and one for the coaching staff, filled with their favorite things. Each basket included an autographed jersey and other items hand-picked by the players and their better halves.

Be on the lookout for this season's gift basket auction, scheduled to take place on Feb. 11, 2017.

Mystery Mini-Helmets: The Washington Capitals raised more than $18,000 for charity through the team's Mystery Mini-Helmets fundraiser, taking place during March 2016. The fundraiser featured Capitals replica mini-helmets, autographed by various Capitals players and packaged in red bags sealed with a Capitals sticker so fans did not know whose autograph they received until after they had made their purchase. All but five mini-helmets were signed by a member of the Caps. The lucky fans who selected unsigned mini-helmets got to meet a Caps player and have them signed in person.

The Capitals are planning to host its Mystery Mini-Helmets fundraiser on Jan. 1, 2016.

Military Night Jersey Auction: Monumental Sports & Entertainment Foundation and the Caps raised $46,125 for Defending the Blue Line and USO of Metropolitan Washington Baltimore through an auction on Salute to the Military Night on Feb. 4 during the Capitals game against the New York Islanders. Salute to the Military Night is an evening dedicated to honoring the men and women who have served the country in the armed forces.

The auction featured autographed jerseys, goalie masks and pucks. During warmups, players wore camouflage Capitals jerseys which were signed and auctioned off. Braden Holtby and Philipp Grubauer also wore military-themed goalie masks during the game. Fifteen jerseys sold for more than $1,000, with captain Alex Ovechkin's jersey selling for the most at $1,900. Holtby's autographed mask sold for $5,350 and a framed, autographed team Military Night camouflage puck set sold for $3,050.

This season's Military Night Jersey Auction is slated to take place on March 2, 2016.

Green Auction: MSE Foundation raised $49,325 through the Washington Capitals Green Auction on March 15 during the game against the Carolina Hurricanes. All proceeds benefited the Anacostia Waterfront Trust and the Anacostia Watershed Society.

The auction featured autographed jerseys and pucks. During warmups, the players wore St. Patrick's Day themed Capitals jerseys which were signed and auctioned off. Eighteen jerseys sold for more than $1,000, with Justin Williams' jersey receiving the highest bid at $4,650. Evgeny Kuznetsov's jersey sold for $4,100 and a framed, team-autographed green puck set sold for $3,000.

Be on the lookout for the Capitals Green Auction to take place in March 2017.

Holiday Puck Surprises: The holidays are made just a little bit sweeter thanks to the Capitals "Puck Surprises" hosted at Verizon Center. The puck surprises give fans an opportunity to purchase pucks autographed by their favorite players, wrapped with the colors and candy treats of the season. The lucky fans who select unsigned pucks get to meet a Caps player and have them signed in person. During the 2015-16 season, the puck surprises raised more than $36,000 for MSE Foundation.

This season the Spring Puck Surprise will be held on April 5, 2017.

Programs

Family-to-Family: For the fifth-straight year, all three Monumental Sports & Entertainment sports teams collaborated on the Family-to-Family program, which the Wizards created 19 years ago. The program allows the Capitals, Mystics and Wizards to "adopt" families in need who are nominated by local schools and nonprofit organizations. During the 2015 holiday season, 20 families were adopted by MSE Foundation and an additional 14 families were adopted by individual players, coaches and staff members.

The Family-to-Family program kicked off when Capitals better halves Mandy Alzner, Ashley Beagle, Liza Berg (Nicklas Backstrom), Sarah Chimera, Amelia Falk (Marcus Johansson), Ivy Forsythe, Brandi Holtby, Erin Orpik and Kim Trotz and mascot Slapshot; Mystics guards Tayler Hill and Tierra Ruffin-Pratt and Mystics better half Nanci Thibault; and Wizards better halves Christina Dudley, Lauren Hilario, Leah Neal and Kathy Wittman, Wizard Girls and mascot G-Wiz shopped for nearly 100 adults and children adopted through the initiative. Clothing, educational items and toys were purchased for the children, while clothing and household items along with gift cards were purchased for the parents and guardians.

Four lucky families were selected to have their presents personally delivered to them by the Capitals, Mystics and Wizards. Capitals players Nicklas Backstrom, Andre Burakovsky and Marcus Johansson along with coach Barry Trotz; Wizards players Bradley Beal, Jared Dudley, Otto Porter and Garrett Temple along with general manager Ernie Grunfeld and coach Randy Wittman; Mystics players Natasha Cloud and Tierra Ruffin-Pratt; team mascots G-Wiz and Slapshot; and Red Rockers and Wizard Girls delivered gifts to these local underserved families. The group, along with MSE staff members, boarded a bus at Verizon Center loaded with gifts for the families. The players spent the afternoon delivering presents to the families in northeast and southeast Washington.

The families selected for participation in the Family-to-Family program were nominated by local schools and nonprofit organizations, including Bright Beginnings, Brightwood Education Campus, Browne Education Campus, Catholic Charities, First AME Church of Alexandria, Imagine Hope, Playworks and The Salvation Army National Capital Area Command.

Everybody Wins! DC: Monumental Sports & Entertainment staff members participated in the 2015-16 Everybody Wins! DC Power Lunch program, a literacy and mentoring program based in select elementary schools in the Washington metropolitan area. The goal of Power Lunch is to encourage children's interest in reading, expand their opportunities for success and facilitate meaningful volunteer contributions.

Through the Power Lunch program, MSE staff members, including employees from the Capitals, Mystics, Wizards and Verizon Center, were paired with students at Garrison Elementary School in Washington, D.C., and Key Elementary School in Arlington, Va. Each week during the school year, MSE staff members took time out of their day to visit with their mentees, spending time reading and sharing conversation during the lunch hour. MSE also hosts an employee book drive during the holidays to collect books that are donated to Everybody Wins! DC.

D.C. Public Schools/Serve DC Partnership: For the seventh-straight year, the Washington Capitals partnered with Serve DC — The Mayor's Office of Volunteerism and D.C. Public Schools (DCPS) to "adopt" a local school. For the 2015-16 school year, MSE Foundation adopted Browne Education Campus, a Title I D.C. Public School located in Ward 5 that serves children in PK3 through eighth grade.

Browne EC students, teachers and administrators received complimentary game tickets to Capitals and Wizards preseason games and nominated families who were adopted through the Foundation's Family-to-Family program. In addition, the Capitals hosted a Hockey School clinic at Browne in February 2016 and all of the teams pitched in at the school's end of the year field day, providing mascot visits, inflatables, basketball and hockey stations and snacks and goodies for all of the students.

Potomac Valley Amateur Hockey Association: For the eighth year in a row, the Washington Capitals have partnered with the Potomac Valley Amateur Hockey Association (PVAHA), providing a $25,000 grant. This money helps fund the John Crerar Hockey Development and Chris Dernetz Disabled Hockey grant programs and was distributed to 21 area hockey programs during the 2015-16 season. The Crerar grant program increases participation and promotes hockey within Maryland, Virginia and Washington, D.C. The Dernetz grant program assists USA Disabled Hockey Programs within PVAHA. Since 2009 the Capitals have granted $195,000 to PVAHA, and local hockey participation has increased 37%.

District of Columbia College Access Program (DC-CAP): Monumental Sports & Entertainment Foundation partnered with DC-CAP to provide a $10,000 scholarship to McKinley Technology High School senior Hezekiah Scudder. Scudder played hockey with the Fort Dupont Cannons and plans to attend Bowling Green State University in Bowling Green, Ohio, where he will try out for the club hockey team. Drawing on the skills he acquired through hockey, Scudder's goal is to become an FBI agent and return to Fort Dupont as a volunteer, teaching children how to skate and play the game.

Leveling the Playing Field: MSE Foundation partnered with Leveling the Playing Field (LPF) before the start of the 2015-16 NHL season to help expand its hockey equipment collections and donations. Collection bins were placed at Washington Capitals rink partners Ashburn Ice House, Kettler Capitals Iceplex and SkateQuest Reston in Virginia and The Gardens Ice House and Skate Frederick in Maryland. To date more than 2,200 pieces of hockey equipment valued at more than $70,000 has been collected. MSE Foundation and LPF are looking forward to distributing the hockey equipment collected to organizations throughout the D.C. area and continuing their partnership during the 2016-17 season.

Flashes of Hope: Since 2009, the Capitals and MSE Foundation have provided funding for Flashes of Hope, establishing the D.C. chapter at MedStar Georgetown University Hospital, Children's National and the National Institute of Health, and supporting the Northern Virginia chapter based out of Inova Fairfax Hospital for Children and the Children's Center for Cancer & Blood Disorders.

In February 2016 Capitals alumnus Alan May went room to room sharing laughs and stories, handing out Caps Kids Club kits donated by Capitals fans and taking pictures with the patients and their families.

Flashes of Hope is a nonprofit organization that raises money for pediatric cancer research and changes the way children with cancer and other life-threatening illnesses see themselves through the gift of photography. Nearly 300 patients and their families were photographed during 27 shoots and several special events funded by MSE Foundation in 2015. The goal of Flashes of Hope is to photograph every child until every child is cured.

Fort Dupont Service Project: Washington Capitals head coach Barry Trotz attended the Caps seventh-annual service project at Friends of Fort Dupont Ice Arena in May 2016. Funded by Monumental Sports & Entertainment Foundation, the project featured 100 Capitals fans working alongside Caps' Better Halves Mandy Alzner, Brandi Holtby, Katie Niskanen, Kim Trotz and Taylor Winnik; team mascot Slapshot; and the Red Rockers, who were all sprucing up Fort Dupont.

Volunteers worked on indoor projects that included waxing the boards, cleaning the glass, painting the lobby and hallway behind the bleachers, cleaning hockey equipment, putting together goals and organizing hockey equipment. Outdoor projects included washing windows, landscaping and planting flower beds, raking leaves and sweeping the sidewalks and parking lot.

Fort Dupont is the only public indoor ice arena located in Washington, D.C., and the only skating facility in the area that provides free or subsidized skating programs to children. Its Kids On Ice program provides free figure skating, hockey and speed skating lessons to economically disadvantaged children who might not otherwise have the opportunity to learn these sports. Friends of Fort Dupont Ice Arena partners with public and private schools, summer camps, churches and local community organizations to promote and deliver its programs to more than 7,000 children per year.

Teammates for Kids: Through a grant from Teammates for Kids, MSE Foundation was able to donate $42,000 to the Fort Dupont Ice Hockey Program in southeast Washington, D.C.

Washington Capitals players, Karl Alzner, Nicklas Backstrom, Jay Beagle, Chris Brown, Andre Burakovsky, John Carlson, Jason Chimera, Sean Collins, Philipp Grubauer, Braden Holtby, Marcus Johansson, Brooks Laich, Michael Latta, Matt Niskanen, Brooks Orpik, T.J. Oshie, Nate Schmidt and Tom Wilson, along with coach Barry Trotz, all pledged to participate in Top Shelf Teammates, the hockey division of the Teammates for Kids Foundation. Top Shelf Teammates contributes financial resources to nonprofit organizations that benefit children's health, education and inner-city services. Players contribute a predetermined sum based on selected on-ice performance categories such as goals or team wins. Every dollar contributed by players is tripled through an affiliation with other donors. Because outside sources secured by the Foundation cover all operating expenses, 100% of donated money is distributed to children's charities. Through Teammates for Kids, the Washington Capitals have donated more than $175,000 to the Fort Dupont Ice Hockey Program since 2003.

Playworks Washington, D.C. For the third-straight year MSE Foundation and the Capitals partnered with Playworks Washington, D.C., providing a grant and programming for the 2015-16 school year. Playworks is currently in 18 public and public charter schools in Washington, D.C., bringing safe, meaningful play to 7,100 students every day.

The Capitals staff provided instruction for Playworks coaches for its fall hockey league. Fourth- and fifth-graders from Brightwood Education Campus, Bunker Hill Elementary School, Powell Elementary School, Tyler Elementary School and Watkins Elementary School participated in the 2015 Playworks street hockey league, which launched in 2013 as part of its partnership with MSE Foundation.

Washington Capitals alumni Sylvain Cote and Paul Mulvey participated in a Martin Luther King Day of Service project in partnership with Monumental Sports & Entertainment Foundation and Playworks at Tyler Elementary School in January 2016. They were joined by more than 60 volunteers who took part in tasks that included assembling more than 800 breakfast-to-go bags for Catholic Charities' Cup of Joe program, painting college logos on canvases, sorting winter clothing items and organizing classrooms.

Also in January, MSE Foundation hosted Playworks DC's Junior Coach Leadership Conference at Verizon Center. The conference consisted of 200 third-, fourth- and fifth-grade students from Playworks' Junior Coach (JC) program, which provides students with monthly training focusing on peer leadership and conflict resolution. JC's then implement the training on the recess yard, where they model positive behavior for their peers, as well as help to facilitate games and resolve any conflicts that may arise during play.

Playworks is a national nonprofit organization that transforms schools by providing play and physical activity at recess and throughout the school day. It teaches children to resolve their own conflicts that arise at recess and carry over to the classroom, improving school climate both on and off the playground. Playworks helps transform recess into a safe, fun and inclusive time that gets students active and engaged so they can return to the classroom focused and ready to learn.

Caps in the Community

It is the Capitals goal not only to build an excellent team with positive role models for young people, but also to create and maintain community programs that encourage participation in hockey, serve to educate today's youth and assist those in need.

It is this philosophy that led the franchise to establish Caps Care, the branch of the organization that manages community involvement. Recognizing the community as our most important asset, Caps Care creates programs that are designed to give back to the very community that has supported our team for so many years. Fans can follow along with the team's community activities on Twitter using the #CapsCare hashtag.

Throughout the year, Capitals players, coaches and their families, along with our alumni, staff and mascot, dedicate themselves to making a difference in the lives of the people they encounter. Through a diverse array of causes like education, fundraising, supporting local youth hockey groups, hosting community drives or simply spreading good cheer, the Capitals are committed to being a positive influence and contributor in our community.

Community Programs

The Washington Capitals take part in numerous programs throughout the year that benefit the local community.

Caps in School: The Washington Capitals launched the Caps in School program during the 2009-10 season, bringing the excitement of Caps Hockey to local classrooms in Maryland, Virginia and Washington, D.C. Caps in School is a free, online curriculum-enhancing teaching tool focusing on first- through fourth-grade classes. The online resources combine the sport of hockey and Washington Capitals players to teach math, science, English, social studies and character bulding. This unique program offers engaging, classroom-ready lesson plans and worksheets featuring Capitals players and coaches that captured the attention of students. Caps in School also offers Caps branded school supplies that educators can utilize in their classrooms.

Maryland, Virginia and Washington, D.C., teachers can enroll their classes for free and start to download lesson plans at the new Caps in School website at http://capsinschool. monumentalnetwork.com/.

Hockey School: The Washington Capitals have hosted more than 100 clinics and reached more than 15,000 students in the D.C. area through the team's Hockey School program since its inception in 2007.

Hockey School is a free program, designed to be both instructional and interactive, with the goal of exposing students to floor hockey and teaching proper technique. Each Hockey School visit consists of an interactive floor hockey clinic focusing on stick-handling, passing and shooting.

This season, the Capitals will host Hockey School sessions between October and May for groups of 150 to 250 elementary- and middle-school students, featuring instruction by Capitals alumni and mascot Slapshot.

Each school receives a full set of street hockey equipment that includes sticks, nets, balls and pucks. The overall goal of the program is to equip the school with the tools needed to incorporate street hockey into their physical education curriculum.

In addition, each student who participates in Hockey School receives a hockey 101 booklet that outlines the rules of street and ice hockey, and a Capitals branded giveaway.

Elementary and middle schools in the Maryland, Virginia and Washington D.C., area are eligible to sign up for Hockey School online at WashingtonCaps.com or by emailing School@ washcaps.com. Schools are selected on a first-come, first-served basis.

Most Valuable Kids: The Washington Capitals have teamed up with Most Valuable Kids, Inc., to provide a unique opportunity for Caps season-ticket holders to donate unused game tickets to underserved children, recuperating soldiers and active military and their families in the Washington, D.C., metropolitan area. Tickets that would otherwise go unused are redistributed by Most Valuable Kids to either injured soldiers or active military and their families; or to boys and girls, 18 and younger, through various local nonprofit organizations. Most Valuable Kids' mission is to provide an unparalleled reward system for local underprivileged children and children's organizations that show exemplary behavior, spirit, and community service. In offering children the opportunity to come face to face with athletic and entertainment role models, Most Valuable Kids' program fosters the development of self-esteem and a deeper understanding of the benefits of hard work and perseverance during adolescent and teenage years. For more information on Most Valuable Kids go to www.mostvaluablekids.org.

Community Drives

Community drives are another way that the Capitals partner with fans who want to get involved in helping the local community. By collecting canned food, toys or even by allowing fans the opportunity to donate blood, the team places high priority on making the D.C. area a better place and helping those who are in need.

Movember: The Washington Capitals participated in the men's health campaign Movember during the month of November. Movember is the annual charity event that engages men to grow, and women to support, a Mo for the 30 days of November to raise awareness and funds for men's health issues including prostate and testicular cancer. Supporters, called Mo Bros and Mo Sistas, get friends, family and colleagues to donate to their efforts along the way.

Capitals fans and players including Movember captain Karl Alzner, Andre Burakovsky, John Carlson, Michael Latta, Nate Schmidt, Stanislav Galiev, Philipp Grubauer, T.J. Oshie, Jason Chimera and Tom Wilson participated to raise over $6,000 in 2015.

Toy Drive presented by GEICO: The Capitals partnered with The Salvation Army for their 16th annual Toy Drive presented by GEICO in 2015, hosting a toy drive during the Capitals home game on Dec. 18. All the toys collected were distributed to area families through The Salvation Army's Angel Tree Program, which ensures that underserved children receive gifts for the holidays. In addition, Monumental Sports & Entertainment Foundation donated $10,000 to The Salvation Army National Area Command in conjunction with the toy drive.

Signature Event

Team Visit to Georgetown MedStar: The Washington Capitals team and coaches visited Georgetown Medstar Hospital before the holiday season to visit the pediatric units and spend time with the kids. The players spent time doing crafts, and hanging out with the patients and their families. Each kid was also given a Caps Kids Club kit that had been donated by Caps fans through the Kids Club donation program.

NHL Platforms

Hockey Fights Cancer: The Washington Capitals support the NHL's Hockey Fights Cancer initiative. Hockey Fights Cancer is a component of the NHL's "Biggest Assist Happens off the Ice" campaign, the League's long-standing tradition of addressing important social issues in North America and around the world.

Hockey Fights Cancer is a joint initiative founded in December 1998 by the NHL and the Players' Association to raise money and awareness for national and local organizations involved in cancer care and research. It is supported by NHL Member Clubs, NHL Alumni, the NHL Officials' Association, professional hockey trainers and equipment managers, corporate marketing partners, broadcast partners and fans throughout North America. To date more than $14 million has been raised to support national and local cancer research institutions, Children's Hospitals, player charities and local cancer organizations.

The Caps partnered with Cancer Train and Flashes of Hope during the 2015 Hockey Fights Cancer Month initiatives, hosting a jersey, puck, stick and goalie mask auction that raised over $100,000. In addition, a 12-year-old cancer survivor participated in a ceremonial puck drop with Capitals captain Alex Ovechkin and Pittsburgh Penguins Captain Sidney Crosby.

Hockey is for Everyone: Hockey is for Everyone™ (HIFE) is the National Hockey League's official youth development program. HIFE provides support and unique programming to nonprofit youth hockey organizations across North America that are committed to offering children of all backgrounds opportunities to play hockey. The initiative is supported by NHL member clubs, players, NHL alumni and fans. The HIFE initiative leverages the sport of hockey as a catalyst to help children learn essential life skills, education and the core values of hockey: commitment, perseverance and teamwork.

To celebrate this initiative, the National Hockey League hosts the annual Hockey is for Everyone Month in February. The league-wide initiative includes numerous activities to promote the diversity of the game that involve NHL clubs, players, alumni, fans and grassroots diversity programs, all with the goal of raising awareness and celebrating the growth of the game.

The Washington Capitals held various events throughout the month and hosted Hockey is for Everyone Night during a Caps game in February. The evening wrapped up the team's commemoration of Hockey is for Everyone Month featuring youth players from the American Special Hockey Association participating in festivities throughout the game.

The Caps also teamed up for the fifth-straight year with Dreams for Kids (DFK) to host Extreme Recess Hockey in February at Kettler Capitals Iceplex as part of Hockey is for Everyone Month. Washington Capitals defenseman Taylor Chorney and and forwards Tom Wilson and mascot Slapshot skated with children with physical and developmental disabilities following a Capitals practice. Many participants were skating for the first time, and the Caps players helped them get acclimated to the ice while working with them on how to hold the stick, puck handling and passing. The Capitals provided T-shirts for all of the participants and volunteers.

Retired Numbers

7 YVON LABRE

Yvon Labre's contributions to the success of the Washington Capitals extended well beyond the boundaries of the rink. A member of the inaugural 1974-75 Capitals, Labre was a rugged defenseman whose solid, physical play paced the early expansion team. Labre is notably remembered for scoring the Capitals' first goal at the Capital Centre Oct. 15, 1974, against Los Angeles. He finished fourth in team scoring during Washington's first season and recorded more than 20 assists in a season twice in his career. From 1976-78 Labre wore the "C" on his sweater, utilizing his leadership qualities to the fullest extent.

After retiring in 1981 Labre became an assistant coach before stepping into the role of color commentator for the team's broadcasts. In 1983 Labre became the Capitals'

5 ROD LANGWAY

Known to many Capitals fans as the "Secretary of Defense," Rod Langway anchored the Washington defense for 11 seasons and more than 700 games. Dealt by Montreal to Washington in one of the biggest trades in franchise history, Langway brought instant respectability to the Capitals' squad. His arrival and dominating physical presence helped lead Washington to its first postseason appearance in 1982-83.

The taste of the Stanley Cup playoffs was only a sign of things to come. The Capitals made the playoffs during every season of Langway's tenure. Recognized as the best in the business, Langway captured back-to-back Norris Trophy honors in 1982-83 director of community relations and continued in that position until the start of the 1996-97 season, when he began a four-year stint as director of special programs.

From the moment he took to the ice in a Capitals uniform to his commitment in community programs and youth hockey, no one served as a better ambassador for hockey in the Washington area than Labre.

and 1983-84. The team recorded more than 100 points in three consecutive seasons, including a record 107-point, 50-win year in 1985-86.

A strong leader in the locker room, Langway captained the team for more than a decade and was truly one of hockey's all-time greats, evidenced by his induction into the Hockey Hall of Fame in 2002.

32 DALE HUNTER

Referred to by many as the "heart and soul" of the Washington Capitals, Dale Hunter was well respected for his dedication to the game. His 19 seasons in the NHL, 1,407 regular-season games and 186 playoff games serve as testimony to that dedication. At the time of his retirement following the 1998-99 season, only seven players in NHL history had appeared in more total games.

Hunter left the game having firmly etched his name in the Capitals' record book. In regular-season play he finished his career ranked first in penalty minutes (2,003), second in games played (872), tied for second in power-play goals (72), third in assists (375), third in points (556), tied for fifth in game-winning goals (29) and tied for eighth in goals (181). He retired leading the franchise in virtually every category:

games played (100), goals (25), assists (47), points (72), power-play goals (11) and penalty minutes (372).

Perhaps Hunter summed up his contributions best at his retirement ceremony March 11, 2000, when he said, "I'm not a Wayne Gretzky. I just tried to give my all every night. That work ethic is what the Caps have always been about."

11 MIKE GARTNER

Mike Gartner, a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame who ranks second in Capitals history in goals (397), assists (392) and points (789), became the fourth player in Capitals history to have his number retired when the No. 11 was raised to the rafters on Dec. 28, 2008.

Gartner spent the first 10 seasons of his 19-year NHL career with the Capitals after Washington selected him in the first round, fourth overall, in the 1979 NHL Draft. He led the team in goals five times and in points four times, scoring at least 35 goals in each of his first nine years in Washington (he had 26 goals when he was traded 56 games into 1988-89, his 10th season). He left the team as its all-time leader in games played, goals, assists, points, power-play goals and game-winning goals.

Gartner was a member of the first six Capitals playoff teams, leading four of those teams in playoff scoring. He recorded 43 points (16 goals, 27 assists) in 47 playoff games for the club and at the time of his trade was Washington's all-time leading playoff scorer.

Gartner played 1,432 career games with five teams in his career, recording 708 goals (sixth in NHL history) and 627 assists for 1,335 points. Inducted in the Hockey Hall of Fame in 2001, Gartner holds the NHL record for the most 30-goal seasons (17) and shares the record for most consecutive 30-goal seasons (15). He played in seven NHL All-Star Games and three times won the NHL's fastest skater competition at the NHL All-Star Game.

Capitals Logo & Uniform History

The Capitals current look, unveiled prior to the 2007-08 season, boasts ties to the franchise's past both in color and design.

Red, white and blue brought the Capitals back to their original colors, in shades that align with those of the American flag and symbolically strengthen the Capitals' ties to their home city of Washington, D.C., the nation's capital.

Countless Capitals fans had emailed owner Ted Leonsis asking – pleading in some cases – for a return to the red, white and blue that the team wore for 20 years. Spurred on by those requests – along with similar convictions held by Leonsis, team president Dick Patrick, the rest of the ownership group and vice president and general manager George McPhee – the Capitals worked with Reebok to develop the new look.

The primary logo draws upon the team's original jerseys, but with a fresh, bold font. The letters lean forward, representing the team's commitment to innovation and forward thinking. The three stars represent Maryland, Virginia and Washington, D.C. – the three main geographic areas in the Capitals' market – and align with hockey tradition, as each game's top players are named its three stars. The letter t, like in the original uniforms, depicts a hockey stick, with a puck at the end.

The shoulder patch incorporates imagery from the Capitals' most recent uniforms, which featured an eagle and the Capitol dome. Here those Washington, D.C., icons come together in a distinctive look. The eagle's wings are raised at its sides and help form the shape of a "W," representing Washington, D.C., the world's most powerful and influential city.
